

Value Added Services

- Extensive knowledge and experience to help with all matters pertaining to pumps and other rotating equipment
- Programs to create cost savings in areas pertaining to pumps, for example water conservation & energy savings
- Mill services such as Inventory Control, Pump Surveys, Obsolescence programs & system diagnostics
- Buyback of obsolete and overstocked inventory that is no longer needed in the mill (including used equipment)
- Engineering available for upgrade projects and new applications
- SKF Repair Reports available for any repairs completed by Hisco
- Dedicated inventory or on site consignment inventory programs available

Mill Personnel training available in the following areas:

- pump theory training
- packing and seal training
- pump repair training
- general pump training

Ability to create ideas to extend reliability and pump life throughout the mill including but not limited to upgrades in materials, repair processes & in field procedures

In field solutions for pump issues - mechanical or hydraulic

VISIT US ONLINE AT WWW.HISCO.PUMP.COM